

Undergraduate Bulletin

Security Management

2012-2013

Prerequisites. ECO 101 and SOC 101. These courses fulfill the College's general education requirements in the social sciences.

Coordinator. Professor Robert McCrie, Department of Security, Fire and Emergency Management (212.237.8386, rmccrie@jjay.cuny.edu)

Credits

PART ONE. CORE COURSES

Subtotal: 18

Required

LAW 207 Law for Security Personnel

SEC 101 Introduction to Security

SEC 210 Methods of Security

SEC 211 Security Management

SEC 270/MAT 270 Security of Computers and Their Data

SEC 310 Emergency Planning

PART TWO. SECURITY APPLICATIONS

Subtotal: 6

Required

POL 207 The Investigative Function

Select one

FIS 101 Introduction to Fire Science

FIS 106 Safety Engineering

PART THREE. SECURITY-RELATED COURSES

Subtotal: 9

Select three

ACC 250 Introduction to Accounting

ENG 235 Writing for Management, Business and Public Administration

SOC 203 Criminology

SOC 360/ECO 360 Corporate and White-Collar Crime

PART FOUR. SENIOR SEMINAR

Subtotal: 3

Required

SEC 405 Seminar in Security Problems

Total: 36

SECURITY MANAGEMENT (BACHELOR OF SCIENCE)

The major in Security Management concentrates on the analysis of security vulnerabilities and the administration of programs designed to reduce losses in public institutions and private corporations. The program prepares students for careers as managers, consultants and entrepreneurs.

Credits required. 36